

HORNELL ROTARY HUB
FEBRUARY 17, 2012

COMING SOON: The Hornell Fire Department will demonstrate the use of the portable defibrillator.

LAST WEEK: CLUB PROJECTS:

1. ANNIE: a) REMEMBER the money you pledged needs to be in our treasury by March 1st. That is when our share of the costs comes due . b) NEEDED also is a flat bed truck for our St. Patrick's Day parade promo float.
2. RADIO PUBLICITY: There are five live interviews with DJ T.J. scheduled from 7:30 to 8:00am March 2nd, 9th, 16th and 23rd . Suggested topics are Camp Star, Annie, Family Fun Day and Interact Club (via tape). Our work with St. James on the Blood Screening was also suggested. T.J. will try her replacement Lee Richey before she goes on Maternity leave, so we will still to able access the station's support.
3. THE QUEST: The response to the sign up list was great. There are 70 to 90 business covered. If the merchant wishes to pay by mail: our address is P.O. Box 415, Hornell. Be sure to write it down for them. Let Nancy Bartell or Mark know who has pledged a donation. Nancy will see that T.J. adds them to the list of merchants to be thanked on air . Mark suggests you start your solicitation by Feb 20th .

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

1. Kay Phillips is being considered for membership. We are hoping she can be welcomed next week.
2. A Leadership Training is set for March 31st in Owego. Let Pres. Jim know if you are interested.

3. Our first am BOARD MEETING will be held at JC'S promptly at 8am. Please come a few minutes early to get a cup of coffee. Order from the menu if you so choose. Meetings will end at 9 am.

4. Admiral Rodney announced that there will be a Baber Shop and comedian benefit at the First Presbyterian Church on Sunday 2/19.

TRIPS: Mark Davidson paid for his travels in several states. Richard Stevenson went to Erie.

BIRTHDAYS: John Bartell celebrated 2/9 as did Patty Soper Oakes's friend. Admiral Rod honored his friend the gospel singer George Beverly Shae who is 103.

ANNIVERSARIES: Karen Smith is happy to have beaten the cancer for which she had surgery 13 years ago.

SOMETHING NEW: Adam Dubois has a new I phone and his business has a new Lincoln Continental hearse. PP Mark purchased two different colored pairs of sandals and traveled with only one of each color.

HAPPY NEWS: PP Patty has happy news, but your editor can't read her own hand writing. Dave Kilgore's son has found employment. The Faith In Action fund raiser went well.

50:50: Karen Smith.