THIS WEEK: THE COUNTDOWN TO THE QUEST CONTINUES

LAST WEEK: A DOUBLE HEADER:

“ANNIE” : Patti Soper Oakes presented Willie Locke’s report: Natalie Churchman has sent recruitment letters to area musicians. To date response has been positive. Jean Wolfanger will come in July to work with music director Eric Printice. Jane Petty will direct the choir and Andrew Hammond will be in charge of lighting. Glenn Niles will allow us to use Arkport Central for auditions and tryouts at no charge. The last three weeks of rehearsals will be at Hornell High. Play Dates are July 20, 21 and 22. Ticket sale procedures and program outlay need to be developed. Good news: The Tribune has agreed to work along with us.

THE QUEST:

1. Mark Davidson distributed lists of businesses to be contacted. Those present signed up for three or four. The list will be available at future meetings and on your e-mail.
2. A $25 donation will receive recognition on the Tribune’s Rotary Page. A $50 donation will receive two Rotary Page recognitions and mention on one of our radio interviews. A $100 donation will receive four Rotary Page recognitions plus mention on our four radio interviews.
3. Mark also composed a list of all our projects over the past two years for members to share with potential donors.
4. More cans are needed. Take cans to Five Star Bank for labeling and let them know where they will be placed. Return them at the drive’s end.
5. Choose business to think you can succeed with.

BOARD MEETING CHANGE: The Board has decided to meet mornings since many members have to come a distance and evenings can be difficult. Andy Carbone has graciously offered us our meeting room. The next meeting will be Feb. 26th at 8am. Members can order from the menu at their expense if they wish.

DISTRICT ASSEMBLY: This year’s program will be held at the Canandaigua High School April 14th from 7:30 am – Noon. New members are encouraged to attend.

PROJECT PROPOSAL: Mark Davidson is working with the incoming district governor from the Dominican Republic he hosted this year to explore obtaining a grant to provide eye surgery for those in that country who are in need.

TRIPS: Pres. Jim traveled to Rochester. Adam DuBois went to Corning.

BIRTHDAYS: Dave Kilgore’s grandson, PP Mark’s wife and nephew, and Ann Fitzpatrick’s niece were serenaded.

HAPPY NEWS: Mark Davidson is looking forward to a trip to Florida.

50:50: Karen Stevens donated her winnings to the club.
